BIG SUITS FILED

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

J. W. Hutcheson Defendant in Two To Which He Files Strong Answers—Six Divorce Suits

A number of interesting suits were filed with Circuit Clerk J. D. Swope last week, and litigation promises to be plentiful when the November term of court is called.

Though Attorney C. C. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, the Citizens' Bank, of Nepton, Ky., files suit against J. W. Hutcheson, of this city, to collect $5,000 alleged to be due on a demand note for that amount, and secured by 14 bonds of a par value of $500 each of the Marion & Suburban Company. To this suit Mr. Hutcheson, through his counsel, George D. Florence, files answer that this note was given as a substitute for a note of Douglas Webb & Company, simply as an accommodation, and he files an agreement made with the bank by which it was stipulated that it was to sue and endeavor to collect the Webb note before holding Hutcheson liable for his note, and he avers that this has not been done. He says that Webb is worth $250,000 and amply able to pay his note and that under the agreement the bank should endeavor to collect the note from him first.

Another suit of a rather similar nature was filed against Mr. Hutcheson by Attorney C. C. Williams and L. W. Bethune, of Mt. Vernon, on behalf of the Citizens' Bank of Broadhead. This second suit is also for $5,000 on a note against Mr. Hutcheson, signed jointly by J. H. Dickey, of Louisville, and Mr. Hutcheson. To this Mr. Hutcheson replies through his attorney, that he went surety on the note which had been given by Mr. Dickey to the Broadhead bank while Mr. Hutcheson was cashier there under an agreement that the bank was to make an effort to collect from Dickey before holding Hutcheson liable, but as in the former case, the bank did not do so, though notified by Hutcheson to see Dickey for the amount.

Through Attorney T. J. Hill, Jr., Elmer M. Gaffitt brought suit for divorce against her husband, Edward Gaffitt, on grounds of abandonment. They were married in 1901 and have several children.

Attorney Hill also brought suit on behalf of W. L. Fann against his wife Emma Fann for divorce, also on the grounds of abandonment. They were married in 1908.

Attorney Fontaine Fox Hobbitt filed suit on behalf of Thomas Smith against his wife Nancy Smith for legal separation, on the grounds of abandonment. They were married in 1909 in Iowa.

Catherine Hodge has brought suit for divorce against her husband Frank Hodge, through Attorney John N. Menette, Jr., on grounds of non-support and abandonment. They were married in 1893 and have six children.

Suit for divorce was also filed by Chloe J. Green against her husband Pedro Green, her attorney being P. M. McRoberts. She alleges that he abandoned her and treated her cruelly and asks that he be compelled to make an accounting of his property for the support of herself and her two children. She says she owns a place worth about $1,000, at Highland.

Joe Adams sues for divorce from his wife Cora Adams, through Attorney J. S. Hawley, Jr., on a statutory charge.

BIG CIRCUS AT LEBANON

Forepaugh and Sells Brothers to Exhibit There on Sat. Oct. 7.

The great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus will give two performances in Lebanon on Saturday October 7th. In New York City this show is considered the best of all American amusement institutions. For nearly fifty years it has held the place in the esteem of the public as fact of the world, for there is not a country on earth that is civilized where at some time or another it has not pitched its many acres of tents.

The sensation with the show this year is the automobile double somersault in mid-air, accomplished by a young French woman not yet out of her teens. For utter recklessness and apparent disregard of death this act stands pre-eminent. The heavy car shoots with lightning speed down a slender incline, leaps high in air and while the audience is gasping in terror two complete revolutions in space, then dropping with terrific force to a steel platform. This is the most thrilling of all the world's thrills.

The parade which the show is giving this year is three miles long and absolutely new in plans from start to finish. Over 1,000 people, 550 horses and three herds of elephants are seen in it. The entire equipment of the show is new and the managerie is the most complete collection of rare animals in America.

CUPID AT McKINNEY.

Cleo Thomas and Miss Minnie McWhorter Wedded Last Week.

McKinney, Sept. 25.

Agam cupid has been playing a prominent part in our town and has captured the hearts of Cleo Thomas, and Miss McWhorter of Yosemite. Mr. Whorter and Mr. Thomas have been sweethearts for thirteen years and it has been no secret that he had the girl, the time, and now he has the place. Miss McWhorter and Mr. Thomas were married in Lexington on Wednesday.

Miss McWhorter is a very pretty and popular girl and has many friends in her home town. Mr. Thomas is general manager for the Columbia Single Tree factory here where he held the position for several years. He is a man of sterling qualities and is a very prominent man here where he has a host of friends who will congratulate him on winning such a lady for a help mate through life. Their friends extend to them congratulations and all good wishes for a long and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will make their home here.

Epithetism is in our town and we have three cases John Murphy, Jr., and Will Hughes' two boys. All precaution possible is being used to keep the disease from spreading and the school has been dismissed for a time so far we don't think there will be very much danger for the doctors are doing all they can to keep it down and it seems to be in a very light form and they think all the danger will be over in a few days. The doctors have asked all the parents who have children to keep them inside of their yards and we hope they will abide by this good advice.

Mr. J. F. Dittman, of Louisville, is visiting his sister Mrs. C. Mobley, and family near town.

FOOT BALL TEAM.

Practicing Hard at High School For Games With Somerset.

The undefeated Stanford High School foot ball team of last season, bids fair to show up in good shape this fall. Already the boys have begun practice under the supervision of Prof. R. S. Linsman, and are beginning to show what they can do. There are a number of new aspirants for the team and it will be a hard fight between some of the youngsters for the different places.

The team has lost two crack players in Wallace Singleton and Mike Penny but some mighty good new material has been developed during the course of the summer and many of the best players of last year have grown and put on weight which will help some. Morrison Bright is in school but is forced out of the game by boils.

Two games have already been scheduled by Prof. Ireland, both with the Somerset High School team, the first there on October 14th and the second here on October 28th. A letter has been received from the Richmond State Normal team and a game will probably be arranged with that team. Stanford defeated both these teams signally last fall.

The line-up of the eleven has not been finally decided upon, but will probably be something like this, if the boys continue to show up as they have in early practice.

Quarter back and captain—John M. Waters.

Left Half—Harris Coleman.

Right Half—Wesley Embury.

Full Back—Thomas Coleman.

Left Tackle—Spalding Hill.

Left Tackle—Will McCarty.

Center—Russell Brown.

Right Guard—Clinton Coleman.

Right Tackle—Joe Hill.

Right End—Harry Reinhardt.

Among others who are showing up well in their work for the team are William Mobley, William Yager, Elmont Ends, William Wood and Logan McCormack.

Mount Helton was given a life sentence at Somerset for complicity in the Heath and Bentley killing. A Casey county jury tried him. Ten of the jurymen are said to have favored the death penalty. The members of the jury were Oscar Cochran, Steve Ellis, Robert Davis, S. B. Sharp, Tom Lowe, James Chick, W. D. Jeffries, John Russell, W. D. Moore, Walter Barrett, G. L. Barlow and Hardin Ellis.

A great many friends here will be interested in the following announcement: Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Denham, of 38th and Santa Fe streets, Oklahoma City, Okla., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to the Rev. Harry Burton Boyd, of Denton, Texas. The wedding will take place Tuesday afternoon, October tenth.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

To Be Established in Stanford on October 18th.

Postmaster J. C. Florence has received official information that a postal savings bank will be established in Stanford on October 18th. Deposits will be received at the post office, and the government will pay two per cent interest on time deposits. The money taken in will be deposited by the postal bank in one of the national banks of the city, whichever is named as the official depository by the government. One of the rules of the government is that no sums in excess of $100 per month will be received from any one depositor. Postal savings banks are being established all over the country and are said to have proven quite a success.

J. Nevin Carter last week bought the home of J. L. Totten on Danville avenue, the price paid being $4,000. The place contains three and a half acres and is one of the nicest suburban homes around the city.

CARTER FAMILY REUNION

Delightful Gathering of The Clan at Old Homestead.

Reunion there is magic in the word. Once more a family, now separated "scattered to the four winds as we sometimes say" are brought together at the old homestead, of J. M. Carter, deceased, a fine blue grass farm of the West End and one well known, having been handed down from generation to generation for over a hundred years, now owned and occupied by Misses Sallie and Bettie Carter. On Sunday morning the God given day of rest, when all nature seemed in tune and peace and quiet reigned one vehicle after another arrived and friends and loved ones clasped hands, eyes looked lovingly into eyes they had not seen in years. "Some had gone to lands far distant and with strangers made their homes."

Mrs. Rosa Lee Anderson, of Sanzer, California, and Leslie Carter and wife of Greensboro, N. C., were the three from a distance. Others present were: G. L. Carter, Mrs. Lucy A. Carter, G. W. Carter, J. M. Carter, Sr., and wife, C. H. Carter and wife of Greensboro, N. C., were R. D. Carter, A. L. Carter, Misses Sallie and Bettie Carter, Annie Carter, Mattie May Carter and Florence Carter, Mrs. C. C. Ross, of Lebanon, Givens, Carl, Harry, Robert, Earl, and Joe Bailey Carter, J. Wes Bailey, and James Holliday and sister Miss Lois Holliday, of Columbia.

Mr. George Carter from McCormack's neighborhood was the oldest one present and among the among the brightest and happiest. "Uncle George" has seen the snows of 84 winters and the beautiful white hair shows that times banner of truth has been planted, and the sunny face shows no sorrow in only waiting "till the shadows" have a little longer grown. The youngest present was Joe Bailey Carter six years of age son of A. L. Carter. The youngest as the oldest, was at his best, and sane and dandee for the amusement of the crowd. Each family furnished a basket well laden with good things, the splendid dinner was spread on a long table, reaching the entire length of the roomy old veranda. And after the heart-felt impressive prayer made by J. Wes Bailey, of Moreland, all present did ample justice to the good things prepared. All felt that it was good to have been there. Evening came all too soon and good-bye had to be said. We know not when there will be another such meeting. We do know that ere long the "Western gate of life" will swing wide open for some—it may be the gray heads it may be among the youngest, but in that great day when "He cometh to make up his jewels" may there be not one absent at the Reunion in our Father's home. A FRIEND.

SPEAKING AT BRODHEAD

Congressman Harvey Helm, who is putting in some hard kicks for the Democratic state ticket, has arranged to address the voters of Brodhead and vicinity at Brodhead next Saturday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Helm is very popular in Rockcastle county and will undoubtedly be heard by a large crowd.

Mr. Helm spoke to good crowds on last Saturday afternoon and night and says that he found much interest being taken in the state races and that the great majority of the people everywhere seem determined to rescue Kentucky from another republican administration.

A great many friends here will be interested in the following announcement: Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Denham, of 38th and Santa Fe streets, Oklahoma City, Okla., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to the Rev. Harry Burton Boyd, of Denton, Texas. The wedding will take place Tuesday afternoon, October tenth.

GARRARD REPUBLICANS' NOMINATE JOHN DOZIER

In Futile Effort to Defeat John M. Farra for Representative—Other Lancaster Local News

Lancaster, Sept. 25.

The Republicans of Garrard county assembled in convention here on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of making a nomination for representative to oppose John M. Farra. R. H. Hutson was chosen chairman of the convention and G. M. Patterson secretary. Several speeches were made and Mr. John Dozier was nominated for representative.

There are very few, however, who believe he has any chance to defeat Mr. Farra, who is one of the highest class and best known young men ever raised in Garrard and is popular with everyone. Mr. Farra will poll hundreds of republican votes and will do great credit to this proud old county as her representative.

The many friends of Judge Lewis L. Walker are glad to learn he is not so ill as was reported.

Discussing the machinations of the lobby or Third House at Frankfort, Judge O'Rear said in a recent speech: "For 11 years I have served you in an office at Frankfort. I have been there in that capital. I have seen these things going on. Yet he was unable to see or hear of the corruption in the election of Bradley to the Senate, the most notorious work of the lobby in a score of years."

Secretary of State, Ben L. Brumer was acting governor last week, both Gov. Willson and Lieut. Gov. Cox being out of the state, and off their jobs. Yet the pay from the people goes on just the same. And O'Rear endorses this.

The Somerset Journal has discarded its patent inside and appeared this week as all home print. We congratulate Editor Carter on the improvement. We know several other papers that would be greatly helped by following its example.

The E-town News says nine-tenths of the cases in the Police court at Elizabethtown are for bootlegging. Stanford would be satisfied to get a bootlegging case in court occasionally.

"O'REAR JUST ANOTHER HERO."

(Composed by Lawrence B. Finn, with apologies to author of Casey Jones.)

"Larry B. Finn, of Franklin, Democratic member of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, besides being a wit and fiddler, is also 'some' composer of doggerel as witness the following offense:

Come all you voters if you want to hear,
About the campaign of Judge O'Rear
If he's elected, you'll be to blame;
At the Phoenix Hill Convention, boys
he won his fame.

O'Rear walked in at the convention door,
Everybody "hollered" and began to roar,
Caleb Powers waved his hand—flags began to float.
Most everybody there was as full as a goat.

CHORUS.

Caleb Powers waved his hand,
Caleb Powers—Flags began to float.
Caleb Powers waved his hand,
Most everybody there was as full as a goat.

SECOND SPASM.

Bill Bradley was there to hear every word,
What the Judge had said, Bradley had heard,
At Lexington, the Judge at Bradley took a whack;
But Bradley said the Judge would have to take it back.

The Judge began to speak and as he spoke,
Everybody knew what he said was a joke.
Bradley was elected without a single son;
"Twas the purest election that I ever knew."

CHORUS.

Bradley's election, without a single son;
Bradley's election—"purest I ever knew."
Bradley's election without a single son,
"Great God!" said the woodcock, and away he flew.

THIRD SPASM.

Judge O'Rear said, when McCreary had won,
"There are two more races I'd like to run."
Caleb said, "What might they be?"
O'Rear said "Coroner and School Trustee."

But the Judge's fame will never be forgot;
He's almost like a forget-me-not;
His virtues will be sung in lasting tones.

He's just another hero like Casey Jones.

CHORUS.

Judge O'Rear just another hero,
Judge O'Rear—like Casey Jones,
Judge O'Rear just another hero;
He's just another hero like Casey Jones.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

Special Election For Circuit Judge For the Thirteenth Circuit Court District.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 18th.

HOGWALLOW HAPPENINGS

(From Hogwallow Kentuckian)
Luke Mithewish will soon be seventy years of age. He remembers many incidents of pioneer days principal among them being the last time Poke Enslay worked.

Little Fiddy Flinders has started to school at the Wild Onion school house, and to-day surprised the teacher by presenting to him a nice boiled egg.

The postmaster has a new way of catching flies, and is working it with pronounced success at the post office this week. He takes a jug that has had hick in it, places a funnel in the neck and drives the flies in. Then when they come staggering out he swats them with the stove shovel.

Fletcher Henshaw has drawn the color line on the feathered tribe, and will not allow a blackbird to come on his farm.

Miss Hostetter Hooks sang a solo at the party the other night. She was cheered heartily by several of her near relatives.

Miss Cordelia Hellwaeger has bought a handsome accordion and will compete with Miss Rosyolo Mosley for musical honors and social esteem. She says she can play any piece of poetry ever written, whether it rhymes or not.

Jefferson Potlocks took his family to Tickville one day last week and the picture artist to take them in a group. The family was so large the photographer had to write "over" on the bottom of the picture.

A hand organ has been added to the Excelsior Fiddling Band. It was stolen from a blind man at Tickville last week by Raz Harlow.

Frisby Hancock is greasing his wagon, carrying his team and making other preparations to make a trip to Tickville after a spool of thread. It is now on sale there at a bargain sale of four cents a spool while the Hogwallow postmaster holds his price at five cents.

The mail carrier encountered a swarm of yellow jackets on the Gimble creek road the first of the week and as a consequence he came into Hogwallow several hours ahead of time.

DEATH OF LITTLE EARL HOLLARS.

Earl, the pretty little two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hollars died on Sunday September, 10, at the home of his grand parents, W. M. Gibson near Brouston where they had gone on Saturday for a visit. The little child was taken sick Saturday night and died Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents over the loss of their baby boy.

He was a bright little child and all who knew him loved him. He leaves a father and mother and a little brother to mourn his loss.

One precious to their hearts has gone. A voice they loved is still. A place is vacant in their home, which no one else can fill. The golden gates were opened wide; a gentle voice said "come". And angels on the other side welcomed their darling home. Earth has lost one look of gladness. Heaven seems to us more bright, since the spirit of their darling took its happy home ward flight. Earl is gone but not forgotten. Never will his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will ever linger 'round the little grave where he was laid.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SAUNDERS, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors prescribed it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney 2 Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer you a hundred dollars for any cure of this disease. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. WAYNESBURG.

Our graded school opened August 7th, with Profs. McMullin and Wheel-don as teachers. An unable to give the exact enrollment to date but will say the enrollment is larger than has been for years, still there are some boys that loaf around the stores and whittle on goods boxes that had better be in school while they have the opportunity. If the people in and around Waynesburg who have children out of school would do their duty as well as the teachers do we would still have a better school. The district should feel proud of the teachers, they have selected, and the trustees should use all precaution toward the pupils, and teachers, and see that all pupils attend and the teachers have the proper attention of the trustees. The patrons that were so opposed to the graded school will see the benefit of it in a short while. A little more of tax seemed to be the elephant in the road in the beginning.

Rev. C. T. Claunch filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday week and baptized the two candidates Sunday afternoon that were not ready for baptism at the close of the protracted meeting.

The two boys that were taken up and fined $10.35 each for throwing rocks at the church during the protracted meeting and were taken to jail to pay the fine seemed to think they didn't have enough cash home Sunday "howl owl" and seemed to think they could take the town and abuse the people as they came to them. Deputy Sheriff T. S. Reynolds took charge of them, but released them on good promises that they would go to their home and behave themselves. The good people of Waynesburg will not stand for anything of the kind and the boys need not get such stuff into their heads.

H. B. Singleton and wife are visiting J. H. Caldwell and other relatives in Marathon, D.

JUNCTION CITY.

A house of Mr. T. E. Dean residing here was burned last week. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Judge L. W. Bethmann of Mt. Vernon was in our town last week. The Judge is a pleasant and affable gentleman.

An accident occurred in our city Thursday evening which was remarkable and seemed to be unavoidable. Sam Trauer, who runs a huckster wagon from our town over the country picking up produce, had his little six year old boy in the wagon, with him and on reaching the center of the town the wagon came in contact with the automobile of Mr. George McRoberts and the wagon was near demolished, throwing Trauer and the boy out damaging both them badly, and the auto went on not much crippled but as I understand Mr. McRoberts got out and extended much sympathy and told Dr. Steele to give them special attention with the big heart of a Kentucky gentleman.

Protracted meeting began at the Christian church Sunday night conducted by the Revs. Dwight and Joe Montgomery. We expect fine singing as their practice is going on every night. Come everybody and hear some good preaching.

Charles Burke, of your county and Miss Bessie Pruitt, of this place ran off to Knoxville to get married.

If you expect to do any painting, you are interested—you should be—in the quality of the paint to be used.

In any given job of painting, labor represents practically two-thirds, material one-third the cost.

It stands to reason that with so much expense in labor, the enduring quality of the paint is all important.

Why have the painting done unless the protection and durability of the job is sought?

How is one to determine the true value and obtain paint that may be depended upon for durability?

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT IS NOT A SECRET. This paint has the printed formula on every package.

The makers have confidence and take pride in the quality and tell the public the composition of the paint.

IS THIS OF ANY VALUE TO YOU? IT OUGHT TO BE.

The barn owned by Fred Griffin near Danville on the Lancasterpike was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. This workshop nearby was also on fire but neighbors gathered in quickly and saved the shop building. With the barn 200 bales of straw, self-binder, lot of hay and corn were consumed. There is considerable mystery about the fire.

The writer states that Mr. Meader says that every stalk on the half acre is 15 feet tall, and that Mr. G. H. Gowdy, who knows the patch, says that every ear on the stalks are from 15 to 20 inches long and six inches through at the bottom. We are well acquainted with Mr. Meader's farming capacity as he is a former resident of Columbia. When here he was known as a great corn raiser, his principal tool being a spoon.—Admir County News.

United States Senator Thomas H. Paynter closed a deal last Friday for the purchase of the Bellair stock farm, in Franklin county, from Thomas L. Kennedy, the well-known lumberman and Jersey cattle breeder.

The farm contains 346 acres, and while the price paid is a private one, it is said to be something like $120 an acre, making the farm bring $41,500. This farm bought from W. J. Lewis by Mr. Kennedy some three or four years ago, and was at that time noted as the breeding place of a number of noted trotting horses that sold for large prices. This is the highest price ever paid for a farm of equal size in that county.

The big sale of registered Jerseys held by Mr. Kennedy at Bellair was most successful. There were buyers present from Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee, Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Kentucky. Turkeys are reported as being a good crop this season, while ducks will be short as was the case last year. The drought has had a dire effect on the duck crop inasmuch as to the welfare of the "gobblers," has to thrive. On the other hand, the supply of grasshoppers, so essential to the welfare of the "gobblers," has not been found wanting, and following the dry spring and summer, condition warrant looking forward to plenty of Thanksgiving turkeys, with a sufficient surplus to supply the Christmas dinner also.
